FIRST GRADE LEARNED TO READ

The first grade, guided by Mrs. Rittenhouse, learned to read and enjoyed very much their first reader, "On Cherry Street."

They also learned to count and worked on number combinations.

Enjoyed Many Activities

BOOSTER BUS TOOK FANS TO THE GAMES

Although some of the fans and players must have sensed they were being carried to defeat, there was a lot of joking and good natured fun to be had on the bus that carried fans, players, and the coach to the basketball games away from home.

Before the season was over, most of the high school students had ridden at least once on this bus.

Delmar Grover, as last year, drove to all of the games.

The boys leave for a big game.

THE STUDENTS LEARNED TO TYPE

Mr. Fruth employed many different techniques in his class to make typing much more interesting.

Among the new ideas was a hot rod race that measured the rate of words per minute the student typed.

Due to conflicting schedules and overcrowded rooms, there were three classes of typing a day; but as the year ended, the class was held only once daily.

We learned much in our various classes throughout the year. We enjoyed our chemistry experiments, even the minor explosions that we had; and the various odors that some of the students did not seem to appreciate.

We also enjoyed our ping pong games during the noon hour.

SCHOOL PARADE WAS HELD

For the first time in nearly two years, Liberty Center School was represented in the Bluffton Street Fair School Parade.

Before this time, the annual parade had not been held due to various reasons. This year Liberty had almost 100 per cent representation.

The Camera Club, with the help of Mr. Biberstine, displayed at the fair, pictures of the activities that went on during the early part of the school year.

The students from Liberty Center marched in the school parade at the Bluffton Fair.

The Class Of 1953

THE SENIORS EXPERIENCE EVENTFUL YEAR

The class of 1953 started off their senior year by collecting junk to make money for their trip.

The seniors presented their class play, M'Liss, on October 16 and 17, then four days later, on October 21, left for a six day trip to Washington, D. C., and New York City.

After the class returned home, they began earnestly selling Christmas cards, stationery, and Memories subscriptions.

The exciting, eventful, period came to a close on commencement day, April 28, 1953.

For Spring Graduation

COMMENCEMENT AND BACCALAUREATE EXERCISES ARE HELD

After twelve long years of struggle, strife, and study, seven seniors remain to graduate from Liberty Center High School.

The class of '53 was the first to have their baccalaureate services held at the new Baptist Church. The baccaclaureate was on April 26, and the commencement exercises were held on April 28 at the high school gym.

SOPHOMORES GET CLASS RINGS

The sophomores, not yet plagued with the task of making money for their senior trip, settled back and enjoyed school life without interruptions with the exception of their yearly quota of two class parties.

The sophomores selected their class rings from Josten's Ring Company and received the rings on January 8, 1953.

HIGH SCHOOL CAREER

The eager freshmen began this year the four year climb toward graduation.

Miss Smith, the class sponsor, supervised two class parties held by the class.

New subjects such as algebra and biology baffled the freshmen for a while, but after surpassing these obstacles, they continued on to a very successful year.

Grade School Activities

THE GRADE SCHOOL GAVE CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The annual Christmas program given by the grade school music department and directed by Mary Roe was a huge success.

Many mothers of the performers had a big job before them in making goblin and fairy suits for their children's parts in the program.

The Christmas Program was a big success.

Standing: Norman Edris, Jim Lewis, Bill Clark, Bill Elliott. Kneeling: Fred Hart, Tom Tinkel, Dick Lautzenhieser, Terry Craig, Mr. Fruth.

We are Loyal

Mr. Fruth and Terry Craig examine the newly won sportsmanship trophy.

LIBERTY WINS SPORTSMANSHIP AWARD

On Saturday night, January 10, 1953, the Liberty Center basketball team was presented the Frank Garrett Sportsmanship Trophy.

Terry Craig, captain, accepted the trophy on behalf of the team, from Superintendent Lloyd Lieurance.

LIONS HAVE UNSUCCESSFUL SEASON

Through an unusually unsuccessful season, the Liberty Lions fought all the way despite several handicaps.

Many difficulties, unforseen at the first of the season, developed to make the going rough for the Liberty Five.

The freshmen and sophomore boys, led by senior Terry Craig, played fine ball against heavy odds which makes the prospects for the 1953-54 season seem very bright indeed.

Craig grabs the rebound.

We Elected "Ike"

On November 4, 1952, it was election day all over the United States; and the senior government class held a mock election on that date at the high school to help teach the students the value of intelligent voting.

Some of the seniors were in charge of making ballots, some had the responsibility of registering all those who wanted to take part.

Everyone who wanted to vote had to be registered by October 31.

Voting began at 11:30 A.M. and was held in voting booths on the stage. Members of the senior class counted the ballots, and at 2:30 P.M., the election board listed their returns: "Ike, by a landslide."

Our bus drivers transported us to and from school each day without an accident.

Barney Cardin, Willis Elston, Delmar Grover, Dorcy Niblick, Orville Gerwig.

And Class Plays Were Given

The senior class received some of their keenest enjoyment from their class play during dress rehearsal.
